Wicker Appraisal Associates has been appraising Adirondack timberland for over 30 years. Appraisals have been made for acquisitions, tax assessment matters, conservation easements, planning and depositions. Appraisals have been made on lakefront properties and on properties ranging in size from small parcels to large tracts of land such as the 100,000 acres formerly owned by Champion International. Tax assessment matters include appraisals made of Brandreth Park, Langley Park and lands of Finch Pruyn.

A partial list of clients includes New York State Department of Environmental Conservation, The Nature Conservancy, Lake George Land Conservancy, International Paper and Finch Pruyn.

As a graduate of the New York State College of Environmental Conservation and United States Forest Service experience, Paul Wicker can offer a forestry background to complement his appraisal qualifications.

Should you have a valuation problem or need consultation regarding Adirondack property, Wicker Appraisal Associates has the expertise to accommodate your needs.
